

Research

The National Institute of Water & Atmospheric Research Ltd (NIWA) and the Ministry for Primary Industries undertake a range of research projects with our national and international colleagues to understand the risks to New Zealand from non-native marine species and to support the development of policy and management to minimize their impacts. These include investigations into how non-native marine species reach New Zealand and are spread, their potential ecological, social and economic consequences and practical measures to support eradication and control.

RELATED PAGES

Pathway risk management

Surveillance

Ecology and impacts

Eradication and control

International collaborations